Morning Overview

Lesson: Walking on the Stormy Water

Lesson Objective: To communicate to children that God always keeps His promises despite circumstances and even our inability to trust Him. God kept His greatest and best promise by sending His Son, Jesus, to rescue us from our sins.

Today our children learn about Jesus walking on the stormy waters to His disciples. Again, we see where Jesus sends His disciples onward into danger, but appears to them in their distress to save them. This time the faith of Peter is tested and not the whole twelve, or at least this is how Matthew tells the story. It's worth noting that in this story, as in the ones from this whole month, we see a few prominent themes. The first is Christ's compassion. His desire to see the crowd off and eventually his appearance to the disciples and rescue of Peter should continually remind us of Christ's mission: to seek and to save that which is lost. The second theme is Christ's authority over all things. Jesus' ability to walk on water transcends the laws of physics, but those laws know their Maker and Sustainer. The last is the element of faith in the story. As we saw a few weeks ago, the faith of the disciples, and in this case Peter, is tested in the midst of strife. Noteworthy is that the object of our faith, Christ, is what saves us, if only we look to Him in the midst of our fiercest storms. Even more, the storms may rage on but we can rest assured that Christ has promised not to leave us nor forsake us.

11am Sunday Schedule

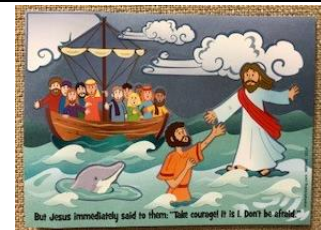

Opening Activity: Hedbanz

- Cherub Church for 3's (Classroom's: 168, 166, 165) – 11:40-11:55

Craft: Jesus Walks on Water

Supplies: Water scene, stickers

- Instructions:
1. Place stickers on water scene recreating Jesus walking on water

Relay of the Day: Walking on Water - This week we will pretend to "walk across the water" to Jesus on blue pieces of cardstock in true relay fashion. Divide the children up into two boats. Have a teacher stand across the room from each "boat" of disciples and say, "come". Child will run across the room by stepping on blue pieces of cardstock to get a high five and wait for you to call the next "disciple" to come. First boat across the water wins! With each round, spread the pieces of cardstock out to the point they can't make the jump so that at least someone will fall in and you have to go rescue them. Talk about how scary it would have been to truly start sinking. Make it fun and enjoy their energy.

Story: Walking on the Stormy Water

1. PRAY for your time and any requests the children may have.
2. ASK the transition question: Boys and girls, can you walk on water? (Allow for giggles and answers) Well maybe if it's frozen! But in our story today, Jesus does just that – He walks on water but it's not frozen! Let's find out why He walked on water...
3. TELL the Story. Use the Vos Children's Bible, the Jesus Storybook Bible, the Beginner's Bible, or the story below to aid in telling the story. Feel free to edit and adapt to your own style. Include props and teaching aids as you see fit.
4. REVIEW the questions to help children understand the story.

Teaching Summary:

- God's promises do not change despite circumstances, people and even our inability to believe them. God keeps His promises even when we do not trust Him or follow His commands.
- For many, many years God's people expected the Promised One – a King – to come and make all things right.
- Jesus sends his disciples in a boat across the lake. Eventually a storm comes upon the boat and the disciples struggle to make it to the other side of the lake.
- Jesus sees the disciples and walks out on water to them.
- The disciples see Jesus, but think He's a ghost. Peter cries out to Jesus for permission to walk on water to Him. Jesus tells Peter to walk.
- Peter, upon seeing the conditions, begins to sink in the water. Jesus reaches out and saves him. Jesus questions Peter's faith in Him.
- Jesus and the disciples land on the shore. Upon landing, many people come to Jesus to be healed.

Story

Transition

Boys and girls, can you walk on water? (Allow for giggles and answers) Well maybe if it's frozen! But in our story today, Jesus does just that! But let's find out why He was walking on water...

Walking on The Stormy Water

Then Jesus told his followers to get into the boat and go to Bethsaida on the other side of the lake. Jesus said that he would come later. He stayed behind to tell the people they could go home. After sending them away, Jesus went into the hills to pray.

That night, the boat with the disciples had made its way to the middle of the lake. However, Jesus was still on land and alone. Jesus had been watching the disciples and boat for some time. He saw the disciples working hard to row the boat because the wind was blowing against them. In the early morning, the Bible tells us sometime between three and six o'clock in the morning, Jesus came to them. But Jesus was not in a boat, Jesus was walking on the water! He continued walking until he was almost past the boat. But when his disciples saw him walking on the water, they thought he was a ghost and cried out. They all saw him and were terrified. But Jesus spoke to them and said, "Have courage! It is I! Do not be afraid."

Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, if that is really you, then tell me to come to you on the water."

Jesus said, "Come."

And Peter left the boat and walked on the water to Jesus. But when Peter saw the wind and the waves, he became afraid and began to sink. He shouted, "Lord, save me!" Then Jesus reached out his hand and caught Peter. Jesus said, "Your faith is small. Why did you doubt me?"

Jesus and Peter went back to the boat. When they got in, the wind became calm. Then those who were in the boat worshiped Jesus and said, "Truly you are the Son of God!" The disciples were greatly amazed.

Jesus and the disciples eventually made it to shore. They tied the boat there in a small village. When they got out of the boat, the people saw Jesus and immediately recognized him. They ran to tell others everywhere in that area that Jesus was there. They brought sick people on mats to every place Jesus went. Jesus went into towns and cities and farms around that area. And everywhere he went, the people brought the sick to him. The crowds begged Jesus to let them just touch the edge of his coat. And all who touched him were healed.
